- Joseph Conrad's Greatest Works
  - Dark Heart, Lord Jim, and Heart Of Darkness: Joseph Conrad (1857-1924) is a renowned Polish-born English novelist and master mariner. His works are divided into several genres and sub-genres. Conrad is known for his ability to create an atmosphere of mystery and menace in his stories. He delves into the psychology of his characters, their flaws, and their desires, often exploring the themes of guilt, atonement, and moral ambiguity.

- Shadow Line
  - The Shadow Line is a maritime novella by Joseph Conrad. It tells the story of a midshipman who, after being promoted to first mate, confronts the shadow line of his new ship. This line separates the life of a sailor at sea from that of a landlocked individual. The story explores the moral and psychological challenges faced by the narrator as he navigates the transition and finds it difficult to reconcile his new role with his old identity. The Shadow Line is a compelling commentary on the nature of change and the struggle to maintain one's identity in the face of a transformative experience.

- Heart of Darkness
  - Heart of Darkness is a novel by Joseph Conrad, first published in 1902. It tells the story of Marlow's perilous journey up the Congo River to relieve his employer's agent, the trader Kurtz. The novel explores the themes of colonialism, the human capacity for evil, and the corrupting influence of power. Marlow's journey is marked by a sense of disorientation and moral ambiguity, as he grapples with the tragedy of Kurtz's疯狂, the horrors of imperialism, and the loss of innocence. It is a powerful critique of the Western world's racist and exploitative attitudes toward Africa.

- The Secret Sharer
  - The Secret Sharer is a novella by Joseph Conrad, first published in 1917. It tells the story of a young sailor, the narrator, who is cast adrift with his cargo in the Gulf of Siam. The story is structured as a series of monologues and reflections that explore the narrator's struggle to come to terms with his inner conflicts and the world around him. The Secret Sharer is a profound meditation on the human condition, the complexity of character, and the nature of truth and perception.

- The Secret Agent
  - The Secret Agent is a novel by Joseph Conrad, first published in 1907. It tells the story of a simple office clerk, Charles Ryder, who becomes embroiled in a spy ring after being approached by a mysterious man. Ryder's life is transformed as he becomes a pawn in a dangerous game of international espionage, leading to a dramatic and climactic confrontation. The novel explores themes of guilt, innocence, and the role of the individual in the larger political and social contexts of the time.

- Nostromo
  - Nostromo is a novel by Joseph Conrad, first published in 1904. It tells the story of the Yezid Pasha, a mysterious figure who arrives in San Mateo, a South American port city, to claim the precious mineral wealth of the region. The novel explores themes of power, corruption, and the struggle for control in a post-colonial setting. Nostromo is a complex and multi-layered work that comments on the social and political dynamics of the era.

Conrad's Life and Works

- Joseph Conrad was born in Russian penal colony, to Polish parents. At the age of 16, he left the landlocked heart of Europe to become a sailor, and for the next 20 years, he travelled the world's oceans before settling permanently in England as an author. He wrote novels, stories, and criticism that capture the human condition, exploring the themes of colonialism, empire, and the nature of modernity.

- Joseph Conrad's life from his childhood in a Russian penal colony, through his early manhood in Marseille and his years in the British Merchant Navy, to his career as a novelist and critic is examined in "Joseph Conrad: A Biography" by Hugh Walpole. Conrad is known for his ability to create a sense of disorientation and moral ambiguity in his stories, often exploring the themes of guilt, atonement, and moral ambiguity.

Joseph Conrad's Writings

- Conrad wrote classics in many different genres and many of his works were based off his experiences at sea as a British merchant marine. Some of his most famous novels include Heart of Darkness, Lord Jim, Nostromo, The Secret Agent, The Shadow Line, The Arrow of Gold, and The Secret of Shangri-La. All of these books are available as part of Penguin Classics, a leading publisher of classic literature in the English-speaking world.
