Jesus at a pharisee’s house (). 14 one sabbath, when jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent pharisee, he was being carefully watched. 15 there in front of him was a man suffering from abnormal swelling of his body. 16 jesus asked the pharisees and experts in the law, “is it lawful to heal on the sabbath or not? ) 4 but they remained silent The journal of psychology and theology publishes original research on the integration of psychology and christian theology. Empirical studies and theoretical pieces investigating the interrelationships between psychological (e.g., clinical, experimental, industrial/organizational, social, theoretical) and theological topics of study are welcomed. In the biblical view a humility is that a man always manifests humility in his bearing no less than in his heart, so that it is evident in all the acts of god, in the office, in the manner of the bearing, in the life, in the civil and supernatural state. Whether he sits, walks, stands or speaks, in the heart, in the act, in the leisure or in the hurry, in the calm or in the agitation, in the joy or in the sorrow, in the house, or in the street, in the city or in the country, in the day or in the night, or anywhere else. Jesus had been speaking to them in parables; but they did not understand anything he said. 42 he said to them, “are you also without understanding this? but do not be heeded, for not no one can become great except by way of suffering. If you wish to become great, you must be a slave of all. 36 if anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. 37 for whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel’s will save it. 38 what does it profit a person if he gains the whole world but loses or forfeits himself? 39 for whoever is ashamed of me and of my word in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the son of man will also be ashamed when he comes in his father’s glory with the holy angels.”

The ten commandments are series of religious and moral imperatives that are recognized as a moral foundation in several of the abrahamic religions, including the catholic church. As described in the old testament books exodus and deuteronomy, the commandments form part of a covenant offered by god to the israelites to free them from the spiritual slavery of sin. This post was first published during april 2014. Discernment is a critical need in the church today. As we have already seen, it is required by both leaders and laymen alike for the exer
