Psycho—Robert Bloom 2014 She was a fugitive, lost in a storm. That was when she saw the sign: MOTOEL—VACANCY. She switched off the engine and sat thinking, alone and frightened. The stolen money wouldn't help her; and, Sam couldn't either, because she had taken the wrong turning. There was nothing she could do now - she had made her grave and she had to lie in it. She knew. Where had THAT come from? It was BED, not GRAVE. Shaking in fear, her knees were covered by shadows. Then, without a sound, a dark shape emerged from the black and the door opened...

The film “Psycho” by Alfred Hitchcock. An Analysis of the Introductory Scene—Harendra Kumar
